Our mission: making life better for students at Bucks

This year, we are sharing the strategic vision and commitments for our Union that will outline our direction until 2029. Despite recent progress and successes, of which we can be collectively proud, we will put a huge amount of energy into driving the organisation forward. During this period, our focus will be:

- ◆ Student Voice: amplifying the voice of our members
- ◆ Student Life: helping our members navigate university life
- ◆ Student Success: supporting student success and life beyond Bucks

We truly feel the plan is leading us to become a more dynamic organisation that will inspire our members whilst tenaciously representing all students at Bucks New University.

We continue to make significant progress but there will always be much to do and our Union has the confidence we can meet the challenges we face and deliver on our commitments for our members.

A vision for our members

Everything we do will create an environment where our diverse membership feel they belong. We will create inclusive, supportive communities based on shared interests, values and ideas.

Where the Union is an effective, trusted and credible agent for change and champion of all students of BNU.

Where our members are inspired to embrace and explore a broad variety of accessible educational, developmental and social opportunities which will support their successful student journey.

Where our members are encouraged and supported to create opportunities for others, developing into leadership roles throughout an organisation they feel truly part of.

Where the collective strength of the membership is recognised, respected and valued for its unique contribution both within the Union and our wider community.

Where opportunity is never defeated by circumstance

As with everything we do, the plan's success will rely on the engagement of our members so now it's over to you to get involved.

Enrolling on a course at Buckinghamshire New University automatically makes you a member of Bucks Students' Union. You don't need to join and there are no fees involved, but membership gives you access to the vast range of services that we offer - all for free, thanks to The Big Deal.

This guide represents all the detail of what we offer as a Students' Union and how you can get involved as a member.

But, most importantly, it gives you the opportunity to stand and vote in our elections, attend Union Council and help influence the way both the Union and University is run.

If you think there's something we should be doing, or would like to suggest ways we could do things differently, please let us know by emailing union@bnu.ac.uk.

All of these free services are available to every single member no matter how you study, thanks to The Big Deal.

For more information on the range of services we provide, visit bucksstudentsunion.org, or get in touch by emailing union@bnu.ac.uk or calling 01494 601 600.

At Bucks, we want you to succeed in all aspects of your university experience and beyond. We know how good you are, so we're giving you the opportunity to receive a record of all your fantastic Union-related achievements in one place.

Every time you participate in an activity with us – be it volunteering, a skills session or securing a committee role – we have a record of it and are now able to collate these records to really showcase your involvement through the Bucks Award.

The Bucks Award is divided into sections with the idea that by the time you leave university you have something in every section – a completely achievable goal due to all the free opportunities you have access to, thanks to The Big Deal.

Employment

We will list any role you have had with the Students' Union during your time at Bucks, backing up that you have had the work experience you claim on your CV.

Skills

Maybe you've attended our course-specific or transferable skills training sessions or achieved accredited qualifications through us. These will all be listed here so you can see exactly how much you've developed with your Students' Union.

Volunteering

This will detail the number of hours volunteering you have completed (and most importantly logged) by type of role: club or society committee role, ambassador role, community or external projects and Students' Union or internal projects. Being able to talk about your volunteering experiences, and relate them to roles that you apply for, will be invaluable.

Leadership roles

Whether you've been a school officer or student rep, ambassador or chair of a club or society or team leader in our bars, you have had to use leadership skills to perform your role. As a candidate in our elections, you will have planned a campaign and influenced people into voting for you, therefore demonstrating signs of your leadership skills. Whatever you want to do as a career, leadership skills will give you an advantage.

Awards

Here will be a list of any award you have received at the Athletic Union Dinner or Union Awards, including any awards you have been shortlisted for. These are really great achievements and should be recognised.

“Having the opportunity to develop my skills and see them recognised in my Bucks award has helped me to identify the transferable skills I can take into my career”

Lauren Milne

Memberships

If you are a member of a club or society, it will be listed here. Participation in these activities demonstrates commitment to a sport or interest and the ability to build your own networks and team-based skills.

The Bucks Award can be used as an ongoing reflective tool to identify any areas you feel we can help you develop. Maybe you have accrued many volunteering hours but would like to secure a leadership role or maybe you've attended lots of skills sessions and would like to use those skills working for us. It can also be a way of showing prospective employers the many activities you have been involved in, therefore demonstrating the transferable skills and experiences you've picked up during your time studying.

For this reason, we offer Bucks Award sessions, where we are able to produce your Bucks Award on request and use this self-reflective session, to really help you understand all the skills you have gained from your involvement with our activities and how each of these can be transferred into the workplace. These sessions can be booked directly with the Training and Development team, by emailing sutrainig@bnu.ac.uk.

BUDDYING

One of the many ways we make life better for students at Bucks

When you spend money with your Students' Union, across all our outlets, it goes towards maintaining the spaces, employing our members and enhancing a safe and inclusive student space to support your university experience. Every spare penny is reinvested for the benefit of our members and can help fund advice, welfare, representation, campaigns activities, and much more.

EVENTS

Free. Seven nights a week. All year.

We've got events happening all the time, so there really is something for everyone. Ever wanted to go to a drag cabaret, catch some live music or go to a club night you just can't afford? You don't have to worry about that at Bucks - everything is free, thanks to The Big Deal. No other university in the country supports the social lives of their students to this extent.

Club nights, live music, karaoke, quizzes, themed parties, movie nights, live sport, society showcases, student takeovers - The Venue is open every single night, and if you can think of it, we've probably put it on. Just a few highlights:

OMB: Wycombe's only student club night. Every Wednesday. You'll be there.

The Big Quiz: Every Sunday, over £100 in prizes up for grabs.

Shutdown: Once a month, and it goes off. Fuse ODG, Krept and Konan, Clavish and Hardy Caprio have all torn the roof off in the last year alone.

Drag Cabaret: Glitter, gags and gowns with our fabulous host Luna.

Bucks Weekender: The end-of-year ball, so big we do it over two nights. Last year: Tion Wayne and Joel Corry headlining.

That's the tip of the iceberg. There's something on every night of term, and we've put everyone from ArrDee and Bad Boy Chiller Crew to Scouting for Girls and Wilkinson on our stage.

Got an idea? We're listening.

The best events start with students. Want to DJ, promote your own night, get your society a showcase, or just think we should be doing something we're not? Tell us - we're always open to suggestions, and if you fancy joining the team, there's paid work on the bar and events crew too.

Get in touch: suevents@bnu.ac.uk

Our venue has maintained its gold Best Bar None status, recognising industry best practice, customer care, safety, and corporate social responsibility.

Students get 20% discount off all hire equipment through Bucks Hire.

Bucks New Usage is a service that provides Bucks students with free, second-hand goods, based in West Wing at the High Wycombe Campus.

They've got everything from pots and pans to cutlery, mugs, and bedding. Even if you are looking for a toaster or kettle you might be able to find them along with any similar items that you may need during your time at University.

The Bucks New Usage initiative works with students who are leaving University or halls donating their perfectly good, but no longer needed items, and then new students picking up something they might need, totally free. It's a fantastic scheme which is especially useful for students who need to travel internationally with limited luggage allowance or freshers' who may have forgotten that all important bottle opener. Even if you're not a fresher, you're more than welcome to pop in to replace your chipped mug, plate or, if you are lucky, a new glass for your morning orange juice.

REPRESENTATION

Student reps are elected by their peers to give student feedback in University meetings and in more informal settings.

Student reps represent the views of their peers and classmates by carrying forward any concerns they may have surrounding the education they are receiving, whilst also highlighting good practice that takes place. In order to become a rep you have to stand in an online election. But don't worry, it's easier than it sounds. It's a brilliant opportunity to effectively represent your academic interests.

Our student reps help to enhance the quality of their course, they are involved in shaping the curriculum and can help create positive change. Reps are rewarded up to £100 and will also have the opportunity to develop and enhance skills for their CV, learn more about higher education, representing students and running campaigns.

The important thing to mention is that you don't do it alone. We have staff and officers who will train you, send you briefings, and meet with you in both groups and one-to-one settings. We also have online resources available on our website. This includes newly developed initiatives that we have made, just for our reps, in order to enhance their ability to be the voice of the students they represent. You can also read more about the full range of training we offer in the additional skills section on page 26.

At our core, we exist to represent and fight for your best interests

We recruit, train and support nearly 250 reps to achieve this

We are always creating more opportunities for our student reps to engage with the wider University community, and encourage all students to take the next steps in democracy, training, and governance – whether that's as a rep, student voice officer or elected officer.

STUDENT VOICE OFFICERS

To ensure the Students' Union is representing all members to the best of our ability, student voice officers are appointed to represent students from groups with shared interests, experiences, or backgrounds. These officers play a crucial role in ensuring the Students' Union is diverse, inclusive, and community-driven.

Student voice officers work alongside our full-time elected officers and staff to ensure the Union meets its objectives and continues to operate in the best interests of its members. Students from all backgrounds, including a range of ethnicities, ages, genders, levels and modes of study, and academic colleges, are encouraged to apply.

Student voice officers plan and lead campaigns to enhance the student experience, especially for the groups they represent. They participate in Union and University committees, communicate with key stakeholders, and give feedback on reports regarding Union operations. Additionally, they promote and support Students' Union events, ensuring a high-quality experience for all members.

Our student voice officers are fully supported by the Students' Union. If you are interested in representing the views of students from a similar background to yourself, then please contact the Representation team at surepresentation@bnu.ac.uk.

“As a Student Voice Officer, I have truly been able to grow as a person. I’ve had the opportunity to work on different campaigns that have had a positive impact on the student experience here at BNU. Last year I worked on promoting the Low-Income Scheme created by the NHS and the new rules for renters as set out by the government. The role has pushed me to new opportunities, doing things I wouldn’t have ever thought about doing before university, such as speaking at the monthly Union Council and writing for the newspaper and website. I’d recommend getting involved in the Students’ Union to anyone interested as it will greatly elevate your student experience.”

BECOMING AN ELECTED OFFICER

Do you want to earn a competitive graduate salary, gain valuable experience in leadership, decision-making and campaigning and have access to great personal development opportunities? Do you want to lead this organisation as soon as you graduate, or even earlier?

If your answer is 'yes' to any of these questions, then why not run in the officer elections for Bucks Students' Union? Our annual elections are open to any student currently studying at Bucks New University.

UNION COUNCIL

Union Council, which has an elected student chair, is a great way to suggest ideas or raise issues with any aspect of your University experience. Topics raised by students and elected officers can be discussed with others in the meeting and may then be taken to a higher level within the University. It also gives Union and University staff the opportunity to run any concepts, decisions or ideas past our members to see whether they believe it would be beneficial for the wider student body.

Union Council is also the place where members can hold the elected officers to account and ask about plans and campaigns that the Students' Union is running. Union Council meets once a month and all members of the Students' Union are invited to attend.

VOLUNTEERING

Over 18,000 volunteering hours were logged in the last year

Student volunteering provides opportunities for students to gain extra skills, network and development as individuals, while making an impact within the community.

Students are engaged in a wide variety of projects, working with community projects and charities such as One Can Trust, Chiltern Rangers, Heart and Soul Hub and many more. We also provide a service to match students with volunteering opportunities within long-term placements, gaining professional skills and experience.

You can also volunteer within the Students' Union, making items for other students, becoming part of a club or society committee or even an ambassador role. To reward students for the work they do in the local community, we offer volunteering bundles. Within this bundle is a t-shirt, jumper, backpack, portable charger, water bottle and much more. You will be fully kitted out to volunteer at any activity you like, all whilst representing the Union.

If you would like to receive this bundle, we are asking students to log 30 hours of community volunteering. Once you have achieved this, pop down to the Students' Union offices and speak to a member of the Student Activities team on how to get your kit. Be quick, as we only have 50 bundles, so they are first come, first served.

Short-term projects have included:

- conservation projects
- poppy selling
- anti anxiety bracelet making
- making dolls for childrens hospitals
- SMILE Campaign
- reviving planters.

Long-term projects have included:

- events volunteering
- committee volunteering
- trustee roles
- project leader opportunities
- social media and marketing opportunities
- charity fundraising.

Volunteering is split into two categories: short and long-term projects.

Short-term projects can last anywhere from one hour to one day and involves students taking part in individual or group tasks. It's a one-off commitment and you can help with as many projects as you like.

Long-term projects vary in length from two-months up to one-year. They require more commitment, but provide greater rewards in terms of self-satisfaction and employability.

Please come in and speak to us in the Students' Union offices if you are interested in any of these opportunities.

On average, you would need to commit a few hours per week, with the duration varying on each project. Some students run their own projects, supported and guided by our team. So, if you have an idea, then we would love to hear from you.

At Bucks you are rewarded for your time volunteering by receiving certificates for each volunteering milestone: 50 hours is bronze; 100 is silver; 200 is gold; and for 400 hours of volunteering, you will receive a platinum volunteer award and an invite to our prestigious Union Awards.

Volunteering your time allows you to gain many of those transferable skills employers love to see and makes your CV stand out amongst the crowd.

You may have to work whilst studying at university, whether that's to earn extra money or simply pay for food and bills. So, we have created the JobShop to provide you with links to local part-time employers.

Aside from the earning potential, the transferable skills you can gain from a part-time job will be a great start to your chosen career, whatever that is, and provide essential detailed experience for your CV.

We have many opportunities of paid work at the Students' Union directly throughout the year or, through our networks, we are sure you can find something to suit your financial requirements and be flexible around your course commitments.

This year we have advertised roles in the following industries: music, care, events, hospitality, retail, sports and admin.

Our incredible members raised over £24,000
for charity in the last academic year

Raise and Give (RAG) is the area of the Union that raises money for charity. We focus on a local charity each year and our members pick them, so it's up to you who you fundraise for.

RAG cannot succeed without the commitment of its volunteers and RAG ambassadors are needed every year to manage our fundraising events. These events allow students to raise money whilst having fun. With lots of sporting events and games to get involved in there is fun for everyone.

Getting involved in RAG will give you a number of benefits. Employers want to see commitment in graduates, and you can demonstrate this by raising money for charity, alongside your studies. It also allows you to get out into the community and learn about local causes, whilst gaining valuable skills. In the past, our members have taken part in many activities including endurance events, raffles and sponsored runs. If you would like to run a fundraising event please come in and speak to one of our team.
